COMMUNICATIONS BILLING PRODUCT IMPLEMENTATION

Our Client enables companies to create Communications Applications as fast as you can imagine them. The company has been handling invoicing and billing with their home grown system and were having many issues.

The new billing system designed for them was an enterprise system – a combination of order-to-billing product from Chikpea.com and Financial Accounting from Financial force in the force.com platform.

The billing system allows user to add products to the opportunity through Product Configurator, create quotation, and send to customers. It allows to convert the Quote to Order and generate the consolidated invoices along with the subscription, purchase and usage details in a formatted PDF file and send to customers as bill.
